Description

OA is the Portuguese public association for the profession of architect and architecture. It was established in 1998 by Decree-Law 176/98 of July 3, and trustee of a long association whose history dates back to 1863. It represents all those engaged in the profession of architect in Portugal - more than 20 000 Portuguese and foreign - and regulates the exercise. Similarly, it promotes and defends the architecture inside and outside borders. The OA has national headquarters in Lisbon and regional offices in Porto and Lisbon, where they run their Regional Section of the North and South Regional Chamber. It also has delegations and Centers throughout the country.
